CLAUDE DEBUSSY (1862-1918)
 Reflets dans l'eau, No 1 from Images Book 1

ADVANCED

Debussy wrote two books of Images: Reflets dans l'eau (Reflections in the water) is the first piece (of three) in the first Images book, which was published in 1905. These pictures almost as much as music. Debussy once said, and his passion for creating colour and visual with sound is clearly manifested in this piece. It has been said that he even had a specific image in mind for Reflets dans l'eau: a sunset shimmering calm water and rippling the waves before stillness returns.

Playing and pedal tips: When you listen to our house pianist and cover artist

Champ in G play this on the evermore CD, you will no doubt fall in love with the piece and want to learn it, and you should! This piece is all about evoking colour – depicted reflections in the water of course. Pedalling is not marked into the score. This was common practice for Debussy, who expected the performer to know how to use the pedal. There are lots of notes, and it will take you a long time to learn, but it's worth the work. Learn in small sections – that should help.

Read Lucy Potham's step-by-step lesson on this piece on page 24.
